

John Spencer rites in Seattle

John Irby Spencer, 75, of Seattle, Wash., formerly of Grinnell, died Friday, May 11, in Seattle.

Mr. Spencer came to Grinnell in 1929 from Montpelier, N.D., and was employed by Postal Telegraph Co. and the Dixie Inn. In 1939 he moved to Seattle and was employed by Boeing Manufacturing Co.

He was preceded in death by his parents; three sisters, Nancy Kuhnley, Violet Pugh and an infant; and three brothers, Raymond Spencer, Homer Revell and Robert Revell Sr.

There are no immediate survivors.

H-R May 17, 1984