

ne funeral services of Mrs. Par-de Payne Squires were conducted from the home of her daughter, Mrs.
James Manatt, of Brooklyn, Sunday April 12, by the Rev. E. Benson assisted by the Rev. E. C. Brooks. Mrs.
Manatt was the grandmother of Miss Emily Manatt of this place. A few weeks ago she accompanied her daughter, Mrs. Barrett to Broken Bow, Nebr., and was there stricken with paralysis, death soon followed and rest from earthly cares gave place to joy unspeakable in the realms of never ending rest. 4-21-1903

The Okla. Times says that