

Leonard Stadtmiller

Leonard Lee "Lenny" Stadtmiller, 50, of Grinnell, formerly of Gilman, died at his home Thursday, Dec. 3.

A graveside service was held Saturday afternoon at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Rev. Angie Hulin, pastor of the Gilman United Church of Christ, officiating. Pallbearers were Andy Anderson, Roger Fuller, Ric Irish and Tim McGerr.

The son of Bob and Betty Cates Stadtmiller, he was born May 23, 1948, in Porterville, Calif. He was raised and educated in Lewiston, Idaho.

Mr. Stadtmiller was a veteran of the U.S. Navy, serving in Vietnam. After his naval duty, he returned to Lewiston before moving to Branson, Mo., in 1982. He later moved to Trenton, Mo., then to Kellogg. In 1990, he moved to Gilman where he was employed by Holland Industries. He retired for health reasons this year and had made his home in Grinnell since May.

Surviving are his wife, Ruthanna "Tanna" Lawson Stadtmiller of Grinnell; three daughters, Dana Stadtmiller and Andrea Lawson, both of Grinnell, and Alicia Stadtmiller of Lewiston; one son, Devon of Lewiston; his parents; two sisters, Laurel Bruhan of Irregon, Ore., and Linda McEray of Spokane, Wash.; one brother, Lee of Billings, Mont.; and two grandchildren.
