

H-R

Monday, June 8, 1970

Mrs. J. R. Stanley Dies In Minnesota

LYNNVILLE (Special): Funeral services for Mrs. J. R. (Ethel) Stanley, 71, of Hollandale, Minn., were held June 1 in the Conservative Congregational Church of Hollandale with The Rev. William L. Bankester officiating.

Burial services were held at the Woodland Cemetery in Lynnvillle with The Rev. Wade Dillavou officiating.

Mrs. Stanley died May 28 in the Naeve Hospital in Albert Lea, Minn., of a heart condition.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Calvin C. Arthur, Mrs. Stanley was born Oct. 23, 1898 at Granville. On May 24, 1917, she married J. R. Stanley in Iowa. Mr. Stanley preceded her in death on Nov. 3, 1969. Two sons, Jack and Lilburn, also preceded her in death.

Immediate survivors include her mother, Mrs. Maude Arthur of Hollandale, Minn.; three daughters—Mrs. Melvin (Iris) Geurts of Lynnvillle, Mrs. Melvin (Shirley) Hovland of Hollandale, Minn., and Mrs. Melvin (Karen) Ver Steegt of Searsboro; three sons—Robert and Donald, both of Albert Lea, Minn., and Gordon of Worthington, Minn.; a brother, Leonard, of Conoga Park, Calif.; two sisters—Mrs. Edward (Blanche) Moore of Hollandale, Minn., and Mrs. Arnold (Eileen) Severson of Austin, Minn.; 17 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

J. R. Stanley