Funeral Services On Saturday For Floyd O. Stanley

Floyd O. Stanley, 67, Rte. 4, Grinnell died early Wednesday morning at his home following failing health of the last several years.

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Saturday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Miss Myrtle Lee, pastor of the Searsboro Friends church, officiating. Organ music will be by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner.

Serving as pallbearers will be George Brown, C. M. Pilgrim, Max Stanley, Virgil Stanley, Marvin Steenhoek, and Ralph Spooner. Burial will be in Hazelwood cemetery.

He was the son of John and Etta Myers Stanley and was born Aug. 21st, 1893, near New Sharon. He attended the local rural schools, graduated from Grinnell high school and later attended Grinnell College.

On Aug. 7th, 1917, at Denver, he was united in marriage with Faye James. To this union three children were born: Craig Stanley of near Montezuma, Kenneth Stanley of Manistee, Mich., and a daughter who died in infancy.

In addition to his wife and two sons, Mr. Stanley is survived by five grandchildren and one brother, Harold of Rte. 4, Grinnell.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his infant daughter; one brother, Paul Stanley; and one sister, Mrs. Roy (Velma) Steenhoek.

Mr. Stanley had lived in this area all of his life. For a time he operated a trucking business and in recent years had farmed southeast of Grinnell. He was a member of the Grinnell Elks Lodge.
