

H-R December 11,
Mr. Stanley 1980

rites pending

Dec 10
Lawrence Stanley, 64, a longtime Gilman-Kellogg farmer, died Wednesday noon at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services for Mr. Stanley are pending at the Smith Funeral Home, where friends may call.

H-R December 15, 1980 Mr. Stanley services held

Laurence M. Stanley, 64, of Rte. 1, Gilman died Wednesday noon at Iowa Methodist Medical Center in Des Moines.

Funeral services were conducted at 10:30 a.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Morris Hay of Newton officiating. Music was provided by Nancy Toppenberg, organist, and Pat Cleverley, vocalist. Pallbearers were Tom Harris, Brian Hempy, Lee Frimml, Randy Jack, Bob Lawthers and Richard Page. Flower bearers were Margaret Frimml and Kathy Jack. Burial was at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg.

Memorials in Mr. Stanley's name may be made to the American Cancer Society and left at the funeral home.

The son of Myrlin and Mona Lou Trout Stanley, he was born Feb. 21, 1916, near Lynnville. He attended schools at Lynnville and Grinnell, graduating from Lynnville High School in 1936.

On Nov. 29, 1941, he was married to Virginia Smith at Kirksville, Mo. Following their marriage, they farmed in the Newburg area. They moved to a farm near Kellogg in 1946. In 1962, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley farmed in Chester Township north of Grinnell until their retirement in 1978.

Mr. Stanley was a member of the Farm Bureau and the Sonora Grange, a past director of the Rushville School near Kellogg, and a leader of the 4-H Club.

Survivors include his wife; his children, Charlotte Vander Werff of Kellogg, Butch Stanley of Meadford, N.J., and Dennis Stanley of Des Moines; four grandchildren; and three sisters, Marjorie Taft of Newton, Alice Shaver of Des Moines and Carol Brain of Newton. He was preceded in death by his parents.