

Warren V. Stanley

Warren V. Stanley, 72, of Searsboro died Thursday, May 26, at Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Lynnville Friends Church, with the Rev. Marvin Miller officiating. Burial was in Friends Cemetery, Lynnville, with the Wallace-Pence Funeral Home of Newton in charge of arrangements.

He was born June 8, 1921, in Searsboro, the son of H.L. "Vern" and Kathryn Elscott Stanley. He was a graduate of Searsboro High School. A Lynnville-area farmer, Mr. Stanley was a member of the Lynnville Friends Church, the board of directors of the First State Bank of Lynnville and a former member of the Proclamations men's gospel quartet.

He was married to Mildred Kruseman Aug. 19, 1942, in Sully.

Surviving are his wife; two daughters, Nancy Toppenberg of Newton and Linda Fleagle of Waterloo; and seven grandchildren. He was preceded in death by his parents and two brothers, Devere and Harold.