

Robert

R. D. Steele
2-16-1932
Dies Suddenly

R. D. Steele, who lives five miles west of Montezuma, died very suddenly this morning from a heart attack. Mr. Steele had been enjoying fairly good health. He leaves to mourn his loss besides his wife, two daughters, Mrs. Harvey Cox and Mrs. Ray Olcott, and one son, Frank Steele, all of Montezuma. He also has several grandchildren, several brothers and numerous other relatives and friends.

Obituary follows
Funeral Services

For Rob't Steele

2-26-1932
(From the Montezuma Republican)

Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at two o'clock from the West Liberty church, west of Montezuma, for Robert D. Steele, who died at his home Tuesday morning following a short illness. Brothers James A. Scott and Earl Warren of Altoona, friends and gospel workers with Mr. Steele for 23 years, conducted the services. Burial was made in the West Liberty cemetery.

Mr. Steele loved his family and home and was a man of good character and high ideals. He lived