

MONTEZUMA REPUBLICAN.

JAN. 14, 1965

Mrs. Stevens Funeral
Held Saturday Jan. 9

Funeral services for Mrs. Ethel Stevens, 75, were conducted by the Rev. Frank Jacobs at 2 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 9, in the Steffy Funeral Home. Miss Alice Underwood was the organist.

Burial was in the Masonic-

IOOF Cemetery, Montezuma, with Walter Sanders, Don Hopkins, Carl Anderson, James McIlrath, Vern Vander Leest and Leroy Simbro serving as casket-bearers.

Ethel, daughter of Clara and James Hannon, was born in Montezuma June 22, 1889, and passed away at her home Jan. 7, 1965.

She attended the local school and taught for several terms in a rural school. On Nov. 19, 1912, she married Ralph Stevens. They made their home on a farm near Plymouth, Iowa, until 1929, when they moved to the Montezuma community. They engaged in farming until their retirement six years ago when they moved to their present home.

She was preceded in death by one son, Leland, who died while a prisoner of war in the Phillipine Islands during World War II.

Mrs. Stevens is survived by her husband, Ralph; three daughters, Mrs. Hazel Lester, Mrs. Neva Bond and Mrs. Verna Garrett; six grandchildren, five great grandchildren; and one brother, Ben Hannon.
