8/21/75
Mrs. May E. Stillwell, 88, a former resident of Malcom, died Thursday at a Kalona nursing home.

Loring
Funeral services for Mrs. Stillwell were held at 1 p.m. today at the Beckan-Butherus Funeral Home in Iowa City, with burial at the Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom. Rebekah services were held at 7:30 p.m. Sunday.

The daughter of Robert and Helen Miller Wiley, she was born July 22, 1887, at Malcom. She attended Malcom-area schools. On March 28, 1906, she was married to Loring Stillwell. They lived in Malcom until 1931, when they moved to Kalona, staying in that community until Mr. Stillwell's death in 1949. Mrs. Stillwell moved to Iowa City in 1950.

Mrs. Stillwell was a member of the First Methodist Church in Iowa City, a 70 year member of the Carnation Rebekah Lodge, and a member of the Past Noble Grands Club.

She is survived by one son, Harold of Corpus Christi, Tex.; two daughters, Mrs. William (Helen) Stiner of Seattle, Wash., and Mrs. Phil (Claire) Foraker of Iowa City; 10 grandchildren; and 20 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her husband, one son, and one daughter.
