

Allen
Stowell
Rev Mr.

Emily Stowell<sup>3/26</sup> Services Held<sup>1/3</sup>

Mrs. Emily W. Stowell, 70, a resident of the Mayflower Home and the widow of the Rev. Allen R. Stowell, died Monday afternoon at Grinnell General Hospital.

The daughter of Louis H. and Winifred Wiley Cramer, she was born Dec. 4, 1902, at DeLong, Ill. She received her B.S. degree from Southwestern College, Winfield, Kan., and was a graduate of the Illinois Training School for Nurses at Cook County Hospital, Chicago, where she also took graduate work at the University of Chicago.

She was married to the Rev. Mr. Stowell Sept. 2, 1932, in Winfield, Kan. The couple lived in Illinois before coming to Iowa, where the Rev. Mr. Stowell served as minister to Congregational churches in Peterson and Blairsburg.

While the Rev. Mr. Stowell was serving as chaplain overseas during World War II, Mrs. Stowell returned to Cook County Hospital where she was in charge of affiliated nurses and an instructor in medical nursing. Upon the Rev. Mr. Stowell's retirement from the ministry in 1969, the couple made their home at the Mayflower Home here. The Rev. Mr. Stowell died June 24, 1971.

Mrs. Stowell is survived by two sisters, Mrs. L. H. Gates of San Jacinto, Calif., and Nancy Cramer of Wichita, Kan.

Funeral services for Mrs. Stowell were held at 2 p.m. Wednesday at Denison Chapel at the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Newell E. Davis, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Pianist was Miss Ruth Campbell. Pallbearers were Lyman Case, Grinnell Dunham, Elmer Iverson, William C. Oelke, Bill Shuey, and Harris Stafford.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.