Mrs. Amy Stull, 83, a resident of St. Francis nursing home the past two years, died there Wednesday morning. She had not been in the best of health the last few years and had been seriously ill for several days.

Services will be held at 1:30 p.m. Friday from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Wayne Shireman, pastor of the First Baptist Church, officiating. Organ music will be provided by Mrs. Willard Heffner.

Serving as pallbearers will be William Bitcon, Harold Brown, Donovan Evans, William Greenwald, John Peters, and Edward Speth. Burial will be in Pleasant Township cemetery at Ewart.

She was the daughter of James and Solissa Austella Gregson Myers and was born near Ewart on February 6, 1882. She attended the rural schools near her home. Later her family moved to Atlantic and she graduated from Atlantic high school and then taught in the rural schools of Cass and Poweshiek counties.

On February 8, 1914, she was united in marriage with Oscar Stull at Grinnell. They moved to South Dakota and made their home on a ranch there until Mr. Stull's health failed and they were forced to live in Arizona until his death in 1927.

Mrs. Stull returned to Grinnell to make her home in 1930.

She was a member of the First Baptist Church, the Order of Eastern Star, and the Pythian Sisters. Surviving are her three brothers: Cecil S. Myers and Ray G. Myers, both of Grinnell, and Amos E. Myers of Newton.

Preceding her in death were her parents, a brother, Weaver Myers, who died in 1905 at the age of 21; a sister, Mrs. Hazel V. Peterson, who died in April of 1963; and her husband, Oscar.
