

14-12

Thursday, July 12, 1962

Forward

Ted Swain Dies Tuesday; Rites Conducted Today

Edward Douglas "Ted" Swain, 82 passed away Tuesday noon at a local hospital following an illness of the last five days.

Funeral services for Swain were held at 1:00 p. m., today, at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Gene Burry, pastor of the Westfield Church, officiating. Burial was in the family lot at the Durant, Iowa cemetery.

Donald Sears, Arthur Sears, Kenneth Sears, K. L. Lindenmayer, Lyle Stahl and Norman Stahl were pallbearers. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stahl were vocalists and Mrs. Kathleen Heffner was organist.

Swain, the son of Ira G. and Fannie Hughs Winans Swain, was born in Durant on March 25, 1880. His parents had married at Elizabeth, New Jersey, and moved to Durant, Iowa, living there 28 years before moving to Poweshiek County, when he was four years old.

The family settled in Chester Township where Swain lived for 18 years before moving to Grinnell for the remainder of his life.

Swain is survived by two nephews and three neices, Henry Stahl of Rt. 1, Grinnell, Ira Swain of Boone, Mrs. May Sears of Traer, Mrs. Alma Bingham and Mrs. Soren Johansen, both of Oakland, Iowa. He was preceded in death by his parents, four brothers and two sisters.