

Rites Wednesday
At Gilman For ^{H-R}
Mrs. Victor Swift

12-29-1960
GILMAN (Special) — Mrs. Victor Swift, 66, Gilman, died Christmas night in a Grinnell hospital after an illness of the past three years.

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon from the Gilman Community church with the Rev. Donald Gibson, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Wayne Conant, pastor of the LeGrand Friends church, officiating.

Pallbearers, all nephews, were Raymond Swift, Virgil Strand, Arthur Weaver, Robert Weaver, Wendell Roseland, and Myron Roseland. Burial was in Stavanger cemetery near Dunbar.

Born Clara Roseland on Nov. 20th, 1894 near LeGrand, she was the daughter of S. K. and Christina Roseland and attended the Dunbar and Stavanger schools. On March 10th, 1915, she was united in marriage with Victor Swift and they lived in the Gilman community since that time.

Survivors include her husband, Victor; two sons, Earl of Gilman and Stanley of near Malcom; two daughters, Mrs. Donald Searie of near Marshalltown and Mrs. Frank Jones of Warsaw, Poland. Also surviving are 14 grandchildren and two sisters, Mrs. T. S. Weaver and Mrs. Friel Michaels, both of Gilman.

She was preceded in death by two children in infancy and three brothers.

Mrs. Swift was a member of the Gilman Community church and the Ladies Guild of the church.