

Sara Lee Norris Joslin

Sara Lee Norris Joslin, 60, of Dunnellon, FL., formerly of Grinnell, IA., died of acute pancreatitis on Jan. 13, 1999 at the Seven Rivers Community Hospital in Crystal River, FL. Her body was cremated at the Florida Cremation Center of Dunnellon and her remains were buried in the Episcopal Church Cemetery in Dunnellon. Roberts Funeral Home was in charge of the funeral services.

Sara was born on May 29, 1938 in Grinnell, IA. to Paul R. and Mae Wilson Norris. She was a 1956 graduate of Grinnell High School and also attended Grinnell College where she met her first husband, Steve Bauserman. They were the parents of two sons: Stephen Scott Bauserman and Bradley Paul Bauserman. She was later divorced from Steve, and over a period of time was married to John E. Bishop, Byron Kunzman and, finally, Kenneth Joslin.

She is survived by her husband, Ken; her son, Scott, his wife, Deanne, and their three daughters Alyce, Erika and Leah of Osage, IA.; her other son, Brad, his wife, Susan, and their son of San Antonio, TX. and a brother, Jim, of Iowa City, IA. She was preceded in death by her parents.
