

Arlo F. Taylor, 77

Arlo F. Taylor, 77, of rural Deep River, died at his home Tuesday afternoon, June 3, 1997.

Funeral services for Arlo F. Taylor were held on Saturday, June 7, 1997, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma with Rev. Paul Stanfield officiating. The organist was Laurie Taylor and the soloists were Carol Dale and Marilyn Warwick. Special selections were "How Great Thou Art" and "Mansion Over The Hilltop." Honorary casket bearers were Vernon Taylor, Gordon Cunningham and Gary Armstrong. Casket bearers were Craig Taylor, Stanley Taylor, Kenneth Wallace, Joe Icenbice, Dave Zimmerman and Kenneth Gauley. Burial was in the Golden Rod Cemetery in Deep River with military rites conducted by Morrison Schrader American Legion Post #296.

Arlo Francis Taylor, son of Harry Francis Taylor and Freeda Margaret Rank Taylor, was born in Deep River Township, Poweshiek County, Iowa, on August 14, 1919. He received his education in a rural school and the Deep River High School, graduating in 1937. He worked for one year at the Malcom Co-op, then served with the US Army from 1941 to 1945. He then went into farming and farmed until his retirement. On June 1, 1947, Arlo was married to Fern Margaret Gauley in the Methodist Church in Montezuma.

Arlo was a member of the United Church of Deep River, Morrison Schrader American Legion Post #296 of Deep River, Lafayette Lodge #52 AF & AM, and Lafayette Chapter #232 O.E.S., and the Farm Bureau.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Arlo is survived by his wife, Fern; two sons, Stanley M. Taylor of Corvallis, Ore., and Craig D. Taylor and his wife, Laurie of Coralville; one brother, Vernon Lyle Taylor of Marion; and one granddaughter, Molly M. Taylor of Coralville.

Memorials may be made to the United Church of Deep River or the Deep River Fire Department.

MR June 11, 1997

Arlo F. Taylor

Funeral services were held Saturday morning, June 7, at the Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma, for Arlo F. Taylor, 77, of rural Deep River, who died at his home Tuesday afternoon, June 3, 1997.

The Rev. Paul Stanfield officiated. The organist was Laurie Taylor and vocalists Carol Dale and Marilyn Warwick sang "How Great Thou Art" and "Mansion Over the Hilltop." Honorary casketbearers were Vernon Taylor, Gordon Cunningham and Gary Armstrong. Casketbearers were Craig Taylor, Stanley Taylor, Kenneth Wallace, Joe Icenbice, Dave Zimmerman and Kenneth Gauley. Interment was in the Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with military rites conducted by Morrison Schrader American Legion Post #296.

Arlo Francis Taylor, son of Harry Francis Taylor and Freeda Margaret Rank Taylor, was born in Deep River Township, Poweshick County, Iowa, on Aug., 14, 1919.

He received his education in a rural school and the Deep River High School, graduating in 1937. He worked for one year at the Malcom Co-op, then served with the U.S. Army from 1941 to 1945. He then went into farming and farmed until his retirement.

On June 1, 1947, Arlo was married to Fern Margaret Gauley in the Methodist Church in Montezuma.

Arlo was a member of the United Church of Deep River, Morrison Schrader American Legion Post #296 of Deep River, Lafayette Lodge #52 AF & AM, and Lafayette Chapter #232 O.E.S., and the Farm Bureau.

He was preceded in death by his parents.

Surviving are his wife, Fern; two sons, Stanley M. Taylor of Corvallis, Ore., and Craig D. Taylor and his wife, Laurie, of Coralville; one brother, Vernon Lyle Taylor of Marion; and one granddaughter, Molly M. Taylor, of Coralville.

A memorial fund has been established for the United Church of Deep River or the Deep River Fire Department.

Arlo F. Taylor

Arlo F. Taylor, 77, of rural Deep River died at his home Tuesday, June 3.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. Paul Stanfield officiating. Organist was Laurie Taylor, and soloist was Carol Dale.

Pallbearers were Craig Taylor,

Stanley Taylor, Rocky Wallace, Joe Icenbice, Dave Zimmerman and Kenny Gauley. Honorary bearers were Vernon Taylor, Gordon Cunningham and Gary Armstrong. Burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with military rites conducted by Morrison Schrader American Legion Post No. 296.

He was the son of Harry Francis and Freeda Margaret Rank Taylor, and was born Aug. 14, 1919, in Deep River Township. He was a 1937 graduate of Deep River High School.

He worked for one year at the Malcom Cooperative, then served from 1941 to 1945 in the U.S. Army. He then farmed until his retirement.

He was married to Fern Margaret Gauley June 1, 1947, in Montezuma.

Mr. Taylor was a member of the United Church of Deep River, Morrison Schrader American Legion Post, Lafayette Lodge No 52 of AF & AM, Lafayette Chapter No. 232 of Eastern Star and the Farm Bureau.

He is survived by his wife; two sons, Stanley of Corvallis, Ore., and Craig of Coralville; one brother, Vernon of Marion; and one granddaughter. He was preceded in death by his parents.

Memorial contributions in Mr. Taylor's name may be made to the United Church of Deep River or the Deep River Fire Department.

1997 11 June 7