

Clara Taylor Services Set <sup>12</sup>/<sub>5</sub> <sub>42</sub>

Clara K. Taylor of 1329 Broad St. died Sunday afternoon at Grinnell General Hospital.

The daughter of O.W. and Clara W. Taylor, she was born in Dunlap, Iowa. She came with her family to Grinnell in 1901 and entered the Grinnell Academy as a junior. She was graduated from Grinnell College with the class of 1907. During her junior year in college was a student assistant in the Parker School kindergarten.

Soon after her graduation she became a member of Chapter BM P.E.O. and the Levart Club. She was honored for more than 60 years membership in both groups and more than 40 years in Poweshiek Chapter, DAR. She was twice regent of DAR and served in many offices and on many committees in each organization. Since childhood she was a member of the Dunlap and Grinnell Congregational churches, and she was active in the organizations of the churches. For more than 30 years she was assistant superintendent of the primary department of the Grinnell church. She was a member of the Grinnell Fellowship of Congregational Women and held many offices in the church groups.

Miss Taylor was a member of the Grinnell Museum Auxiliary and the Spirit Lake and Grinnell Community Hospital auxiliaries. During World War I she gave many hours to Red Cross work, and during World War II she served on ration boards and helped with other war activities. For several years she was a member of the volunteer aid group at Community Hospital. For several years she served on the book committee which took books to patients at the hospital from the church library.

She is survived by her sister, Miss Helen E. Taylor of Grinnell. She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Mary Delia Taylor who died July 13, 1963, and Mattie Taylor who died in infancy.

Funeral services for Miss Taylor will be held at 3:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 5, at the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Newell E. Davis, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Organist will be Norman Goodbrod. Burial will be Wednesday in Pleasant Hill Cemetery at Dunlap.
