Rites Held For Earl R. Taylor, Malcom Resident

Funeral services for Earl R. Taylor, 78, longtime Malcom resident, were held Sept. 23 from the Bramer funeral home at Brooklyn.

Taylor succumbed at his home in Malcom on Sept. 20.

Officiating at the services was the Rev. J. T. Robinson, pastor of the Malcom Methodist church. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Nina Bartachek.

Flower attendants were Mrs. Grant Heishman and Mrs. Phil Lamb. Serving as pallbearers were Grant Heishman, George Baustian, Lyle Bauman, Ralph Wentzel, Henry Wichman and Virgil McCammant.

Interment was in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom.

Born July 16, 1886, at Malcom, he was the son of William and Ida Taylor. He spent most of his life in Malcom.

Survivors include one daughter, Mrs. Lucile Browne, of Tulsa, Okla.; one grandson, Tim Browne of Concord, Calif.; and an aunt, Mrs. Mayme Hatcher of Toledo.

He was preceded in death by his wife and parents.
