

Cleveland rites 4-12 December 13, for Mrs. Taylor

1982
Mary G. Taylor, 83, died Friday, Dec. 10, at 1519 Spencer St. of an apparent heart condition. She was the grandmother of William Hunter, M.D., and had been making her home in Grinnell for the past few months.

Funeral services and burial for Mrs. Taylor will be held this week in Cleveland, Ohio. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

Mrs. Taylor was born Oct. 22, 1899, in Georgia and taught school before her marriage to William Lee Taylor. The Taylors had made their home in Cleveland since 1924. She was a member of Mount Sinai Baptist Church and was active in the choir and women's societies of the church.

Survivors include her children Mrs. Mary (James) Burford and Jack Taylor, both of Cleveland, and Mrs. Flossie (W.L.) Wise, Atlanta, Ga. Also surviving are eight grandchildren, including Dr. Hunter, and several great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and two sons, Cleveland and Treasure Taylor.
