Mr. Taylor Was Born in Jasper
County And Spent Forty Years
Of His Life There.

W. E. Taylor was born in Jasper County, July 17, 1867. Over forty years of his life were spent in the county of his birth.

On April 13, 1898 he was united in marriage to Nora Alice Swain.

Seventeen years ago they moved from their home in Jasper County to Poweshiek County, first living east of Grinnell, then moving to their present home.

To this union were born five children four of whom survive. The oldest child, William Earl, died in infancy. Those surviving are Mrs. Ray Knapp of Des Moines, George Taylor of Marshalltown and Ellen and Edward at home. He is also survived by his wife and one grandchild, two brothers, Dr. M. E. Taylor of Woonsocket, S. Dakota, and G. A. Taylor of Toledo Ohio, and one sister, Miss Nettie Taylor of Newton, Iowa.

In the death of W. E. Taylor the community loses a good citizen, a kind friend and neighbor, one who was always ready to help those in need or trouble.

Mr. Taylor was a man who was devoted to his home and family. He was a kind and loving husband and father.

W. E. Taylor was a member of the Methodist Church of Grinnell. He was of a quiet disposition, trying to live daily the life of a good man.

Funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at two o'clock from the Methodist Church. The services were in charge of Rev. H. L. Wissler, who spoke in a very comforting way to the family, relatives and friends. Beautiful music was furnished by a mixed quartet who sang two numbers, "Nearer My God to Thee" and "Jesus Lover of My Soul." The pallbearers were: Jim Otcheck, Joe Thompson, Dick Fritz, F. E. Wilson, Wes Hartzell and Frank Black, all old friends and neighbors of the deceased.
