Rites held for Mr. Terpstra

Harlan R. Terpstra, 47, died at his home north of Lynnville on Wednesday, April 10.

Funeral services were conducted Saturday, April 13, at the First Reformed Church at Sully, with the Revs. Daniel Hakken and Dennis Redeker officiating. Pallbearers were his cousins, Harris, Loren and Harvey Terpstra, Norman, Leroy and Walton Van Maanen, and Bryce Jansen. Burial was in the Sully Cemetery.

The son of Harrison and Marie Fortuin Terpstra, he was born July 14, 1937, north of Lynnville. He received his elementary education at the Black Oak School near Lynnville, then graduated from Sully High School in 1955.

On July 31, 1958, he was married to Henrietta Arlene Van Solen at Sully. Mr. Terpstra spent his entire lifetime farming north of Lynnville.

He was a lifelong member of the First Reformed Church, which he had served as a deacon and an elder. He also served on the boards of many community organizations.

Survivors include his wife, Henrietta; three children, John of Des Moines, Linda of Mason City and Dan, a student at Iowa State University in Ames; his parents; three sisters, Joan Redeker of Stickney, S.D., Shirley Van Der Kamp of Sully and Carolyn Zylstra of Kellogg; and his paternal grandmother, Jennie Terpstra of Friendship Manor in Grinnell.
