Jake Terpstra Dies Saturday At State Center

A former resident of the Grinnell area, Jake Terpstra, 67, died at his home near State Center Saturday morning.

Funeral services will be held at 2:30 p.m. Tuesday from the Estal-Perrin Funeral Home at Marshalltown. Burial will be in Rose Hill memorial gardens at Marshalltown.

Born Nov. 5th, 1893 in Jasper county, he was the son of Arie and Jennie Klein Terpstra. He grew up and received his education southwest of Grinnell.

On June 17th, 1916 he was married to Meta Evans and they farmed near Grinnell until moving to a farm near State Center in 1945.

Mr. Terpstra was a member of the Methodist church and the Modern Woodmen of America.

He is survived by his wife, Meta; two sons, Richard, at home and Harold of Richland, Wash.; and three daughters, Mrs. Ward Schmidt of Grinnell, Mrs. Paul Peterson of Newton, and Mrs. Jess Holdsworth of New Sharon.

Also surviving are seven grandchildren, two brothers, and one sister.
