

H-R April 30, 1987
Alba Thomann

memorial set

Alba M. Thomann, 77, of Denver, Colo., formerly of Grinnell, died Saturday, April 25, at Presbyterian Hospital in Denver.

A memorial service was conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Bethany Lutheran Church in Colorado Springs, Colo. A second service will be conducted at 11 a.m. Monday, May 4, at St. John's Lutheran Church in Grinnell. Her ashes will be buried in Hazelwood Cemetery here.

The daughter of Herman J. and Hedwig "Hattie" Hinderman Voeks, she was born on May 14, 1909, in Renville County, Minn. She lived in Grinnell from 1944 to 1963 where she was the society editor for The Grinnell Herald-Register. She lived in Colorado Springs from 1963 to 1986 and in Denver for the past six months.

She was a member of the Antique Study Club and the T.T.T. Club. She was also a supporter of the Fine Arts Center and Pioneer Museum in Colorado Springs and was a member of the Bethany Lutheran Church there. She had worked as a bookkeeper for a retail plumbing and heating business.

Survivors include two sons, Paul of Denver and John of Danville, Calif.; one daughter,

---