

Mrs. Thompson services held

(CHRIS)

Betty Lou Rubendall Thompson, 49, of Grinnell died Jan. 12 at Grinnell General Hospital after having suffered a heart attack.

Funeral services for Mrs. Thompson were conducted at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Clarion Church of Christ, with the Rev. Carl Lueders of the Immanuel Lutheran Church officiating. Burial was at Evergreen Cemetery, with the Eyer-Willim Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Pallbearers were Jim Williams, Edward Rockow, Dan Rubendall, Dan Rutherford, Charles Rubendall and Merle Allen. Honorary bearers were Cleo Reynolds and Jim Hoyt. Mrs. A.M. Andrews was the organist, and Mrs. Clair McCollough was the vocalist.

The daughter of David and Jennie Roosa Rubendall, she was born April 1, 1930. She was raised at Clarion where she was graduated from high school. She worked in Fort Dodge before her marriage to Chris Thompson on Aug. 2, 1952, at Dennison. Following their marriage, they lived at Alden and Schleswig before moving to Grinnell about a year ago. She was associated with her brother in the restaurant business.

Mrs. Thompson was a member of Immanuel Lutheran Church in Grinnell.

Survivors include her husband; six children, Donald of Ames, Jennie of Storm Lake, Christie of Iowa Falls, and Mark, Melissa and Jason, all of the family home; her father; one granddaughter; a brother, Ernest L. Rubendall of Grinnell; and two sisters, Ione (Mrs. John Foust Sr.) and Grace (Mrs. Oscar Spora), both of Dows.

She was preceded in death by her mother, a sister and two brothers.
