

C-H
 OBITUARY.
 6-11-1909

(George B.)

MRS. G. B. THOMPSON.

Sarah E. Harvey was born at Kellogg's Corners, Wis., February 12th, 1850. She was brought up in Winnebago county, Illinois, and came to Grinnell, Iowa, with her parents in 1871.

She was united in marriage to G. B. Thompson at Grinnell, July 8, 1873. To this union was born one son, Geo. J. Thompson, who with his father survives the deceased.

She was always of a gentle, loving disposition, generous and kind hearted to all, and of decided Christian principles from her early youth.

She died at her home in Grinnell, June 7, 1909.

We are satisfied that death had no terrors for her, and that she firmly believed that at death she would pass into life eternal beyond the sky.

She was always kind and loving to her sisters and brothers and loved ones and to all who knew her.

She suffered much from early youth, from occasional ill health, but was always patient.

We shall miss her much here, but we know that she has gone where sickness, pain and sorrow never come.

We feel that she is not dead, but living; that we who mourn her loss here, will find her waiting at the Gates of the Eternal City for our coming. She is now with those loved ones who have gone before and were awaiting her coming.

We all, father and son, brother and sisters, though mourning her departure, say: "Thy will, oh Lord, be done."

The funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. T. Marvin, at the home, Wednesday afternoon, June 9, 1909, and her body laid to rest in Hazelwood cemetery.