

Elsie Thorpe services held

H-12 June 21, 1984

(Murlyn)

Elsie I. Thorpe of Kellogg died Sunday, June 17, at Heritage Manor Care Center in Newton.

Services were held at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Reese Chapel in Newton. Mrs. Thorpe's grandson Keith Thorpe conducted the services. Burial was in Our Silent City Cemetery in Kellogg.

Memorials in her name have been established to the Kellogg ambulance fund and the Kellogg Boy Scouts.

The daughter of John and Louisa Laskewitz, she was born on Dec. 28, 1896, in rural Killduff. On April 15, 1919, she married Murlyn Thorpe at the parents' home. She lived in the Kellogg area since her marriage.

She is survived by one son, Kenneth Thorpe of Kellogg; one daughter, Mary L. Crum of Kellogg; seven grandchildren; 11 great-grandchildren; one brother, August Laskewitz of Newton; and one sister, Juanita Starr of Indianola.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband and one sister.