

Brooklyn Paper
January 29, 1986

Obituaries

WALTER TIMMERMAN

Walter Timmerman, 93, died Jan. 9, 1986, at Cedar Rapids.

Services were held Jan. 13 at St. John Lutheran Church, Newhall, with burial in St. John Lutheran Cemetery.

He was born at Deep River July 6, 1892, the son of John and Caroline Weiss Timmerman. He attended public school near his home at rural Deep River, and St. John Lutheran School, Lincoln township, Iowa County. He farmed near Gibson for 20 years.

On June 30, 1935, he married Elna Mittelsted at St. Martin's Lutheran Church, What Cheer. They moved to a farm in Benton County in 1943 where he lived until he died.

Survivors include his wife, four daughters, Louise Hansen of Alvaton, Ky.; Caroline Boll, Billings, Mt.; Marie Schwarting, Bloomington, Ill.; Martha Timmerman, Laurel, Mt.; one son, Paul of Dillon, Mt.; one brother, Herbert of Victor and a sister, Eleanore of Senior Home, Montezuma.