

BC June 19.
Floyd Tish 1985

Floyd Tish, son of John and Selah (Reeves) Tish, was born August 13, 1901 in Poweshiek County and passed away June 12, 1985 at the Senior Home in Montezuma at the age of 83.

He was united in marriage to Elnora Caudle at the Methodist parsonage, Montezuma on February 10, 1926. To this union two daughters and three sons were born. Most of their married life they farmed in Poweshiek, Iowa and Keokuk counties. For the past 50 years they had farmed southeast of Deep River.

He was preceded in death by his parents; four brothers: Chester, Warren, Clair and Alfred; two sisters: Sylvia Thompson and Cecile Snider.

Flody is survived by his wife, Elnora and their families: Marvin and Verla Tish, Gibson; Lois and Junior Gay, Rose Hill, Keith and Janice Tish, Deep River; Arlo and pat Tish, deep River and helen and Roger Edmundson, Keswick; 15 grandchildren, two great grandchildren, two brothers, Clayton Tish, Deep River and Kenneth Tish, Brooklyn; two sisters, Eva Snook, and Gladys Burggraaf, both of Deep River.

Funeral Services were held at 1:30 p.m., Saturday, June 15 at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma

The Rev. Larry Pauley of the Keswick Methodist Church and Rev. Rob Houts of Deep River Community Church officiated. Music was provided by Janice Grimm. Casket Bearers were: Keith Fisch, Edgar Miller, Frank Wheeler, Mark McCullough, Allan McCullough and Steven McCullough. Interment was at West Liberty Cemetery.