Mrs. Emma Triggs Is Buried In Brooklyn

1 - 27 - 1925

Word was received Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Coons of the death of Mrs. Emma Triggs, who passed away in Denver. The body reached the old home in Brooklyn last night and funeral services were held there from the Fred Breniman home this afternoon. Mrs. Triggs was a daughter of Fred Breniman, an old resident of Brooklyn and for several years a citizen of Grinnell. She is well remembered by several Grinnell people. A brother, Chas Breniman, and a sister, Mrs. Lillian Garnett, accompanied the body from Denver.

Those who went from here to attend the funeral services were: Mrs. G. B. McGuin, Mrs. Mary Ingerman, Miss Marion Judkins, Mrs. Esther Norris, and Mrs. W. D. Coons.
