

Lois Trimble, 88

(Roy)

Lois Trimble, 88, of Montezuma, Ia. died early Tuesday morning, December 20, 1994 at the Montezuma Senior Home.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Thursday, Dec. 22, 1994 at Watts Funeral Home, Montezuma. Rev. Brian Carter, United Methodist Church, Montezuma, officiated the services. Mrs. Alice Underwood was organist and Mrs. Jill Haack was soloist, with music selections of "He Watches Over You" and "O Holy Night." Casket bearers were Don Erquist, Dale Emmert, Glenn Gibson, Brad Arendt, David Arendt, and Francis Freeborn. Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

Lois was born September 26, 1906 at Hartwick, Iowa, the daughter of Charles C. and Katie Ellen (McIlrath) Swecker. She attended grade school at Hartwick and graduated from Belle Plaine High School, where she played basketball. She then attended Belle Plaine Business College. She worked for Poweshiek National Bank in Brooklyn and in 1928 she married Gerald L. Bolen. To this union one son was born. They moved to Montezuma in 1936. Gerald and Lois were later divorced. Lois also was clerk for the Poweshiek County Selective Service Board for eight years. On February 21, 1952, she was united in marriage with Dr. Roy Trimble. After their marriage Lois worked in the medical office with Dr. Guy Trimble and Dr. Roy until Dr. Roy retired. She was a member of the Montezuma United Methodist Church.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband, Roy; two brothers, Wilson and Wayne Swecker; and one sister, Myrtle Minor.

Lois is survived by one son and his wife, William and Shirley Bolen of Montezuma; two grandchildren and their spouses, Mark and Robin Bolen of Montezuma, and LeAnn and Steve Chastain of Decatur, Ill.; seven great-grandchildren: Bill, Dana, Curtis and Alan Bolen, and Logan, Connor and Colin Chastain; and other relatives and friends.

Memorials may be made to Montezuma Community School Playground Fund.

MR - December 28, 1994