Kellogg Rites For
E. C. Turner, 84,
Retired Farmer
H-R 1-20-58 (1958)

Funeral services will be held at 2-p.m. Tuesday for E. C. Turner, 84, of Kellogg, who passed away at a local hospital Saturday morning.

Services will be conducted at the Christian church in Kellogg with the Rev. Glenn Warner, pastor, in charge.

A retired farmer, Turner had been hospitalized here since June when he suffered a broken hip.

He had farmed near Kellogg most of his life.

Survivors include: five daughters, Mrs. Ernest (Zola) Brooks, Kellogg; Mrs. Walter (Clara) Olauson, Des Moines; Mrs. August (Ruth) Schultz, Kellogg; Mrs. Fred (Ellen) Paulson, Los Angeles, Calif.; and Mrs. ElRoy (Thelma) Anderson, Antioch, Ill.; and son, Carol E. Turner, Minneapolis, Minn.; three brothers and a sister, none of this area; and 13 grandchildren and 25 great grandchildren.

His wife preceded him in death, passing away in October, 1956.
