

Lyman Benjamin Tuttle, 85

Lyman Benjamin Tuttle, 85, died Sept. 1, at Rideout Memorial Hospital, Marysville, Ca.

Lipp and Sullivan Funeral Home of Marysville, Ca. was in charge of cremation.

Memorial graveside services will be held at a later date at the Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

Lyman B. Tuttle, son of Andrew Orris Tuttle and Edith Viola Erickson Tuttle was born June 10, 1916, Deep River Twp., Poweshiek County, Ia. He received his education in the Poweshiek County country schools. He helped his father farm until enlisting in the Army prior to World War II. He was an army cook and Officers Chef while serving in Italy. He received his discharge in 1945.

While in the Army he married Ida June Van Willigan. They were divorced in 1945. He later married Goldie Mae Petit Hauck of Des Moines. They were divorced.

Lyman worked as a cook, and at the Diamond Laboratories in Des Moines, and as a farm hand in the Ladora area for several years. He did odd jobs after retirement. His later years were spent in Ca. with his sons.

Tuttle is survived by two sons, Lyman Andrew and Randall Lee of Ca., and several grandchildren. He is also survived by two sisters, Mabel Marie Spading of Brooklyn, and Leona Mae Tuttle of Victor, one brother and his wife, Harold Eugene and Paula Tuttle of Sheldon, Ia., and by many nieces and nephews.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by two brothers, Andrew Orris Jr. and Joseph Edward, one sister Hannah Lucille Todd, and one grandson.

BC September 19, 2001