

Richard Tuttle, 54

Richard "Dick" Tuttle, 54, died on December 18, 1997 at his home in Guernsey.

Funeral services were December 22, 1997 at Smith Funeral Home in Victor. Officiating was the Rev. Torger Johnson of United Methodist Church of Guernsey.

Casket bearers were Bill Beran, Jim Cline, Harold Kent, Don Neimier, Chuck Rohrer and Al Sciebe. Honorary bearers were Raymond Beran, Leonard Cline, Marion Detweiler, Lawrence Pidima, Roger Steffen, Joel Steinmetz, Richard Vulsteke and George Williams.

Interment was at Victor Memorial Cemetery. Following the graveside service, the family received relatives and friends in the hall of the Victor United Methodist Church.

Dick was born on January 1, 1943 in Grinnell to Richard and Dorothy Hofer Tuttle. He moved to Victor and graduated from Victor High School in 1962. On January 10, 1964, he was married to Helen Loreta Phillips in Searsboro.

Dick and Helen made their home in Victor and later, they farmed north of Guernsey. Dick was also employed at Amana Refrigeration Company.

For 33 years, he enjoyed farming and attending auctions and he loved being with his grandchildren.

He operated the movie projector at the Brooklyn Theatre for many years.

He was preceded in death by his father, one brother, Danny, who died in infancy and an infant granddaughter, Jessica.

He is survived by his wife, Helen; three sons and their spouses, Rick and Sally Tuttle of Victor; Ron and Michele Tuttle of Las Vegas, Nev. and Mike and Denise Tuttle of Victor; seven grandchildren, Gage, Amanda, Kayla, Austin, Nick, Mikayla and Dillon; his mother, Dorothy Tuttle of Toledo; two brothers, Larry Tuttle of Belle Plaine and Don Tuttle of Victor and his sister, Carol Williams of Deep River.

MR December 24, 1997

Richard 'Dick' Tuttle

Funeral services were held Monday morning, Dec. 22, at Smith Funeral Home in Victor for Richard "Dick" Tuttle, 54, of Guernsey, who died Dec. 18, 1997, at his home. The Rev. Torger Johnson of the United Methodist Church in Guernsey officiated.

Casketbearers were Bill Beran, Jim Cline, Harold Kent, Don Neimier, Chuck Rohrer and Al Scheibe. Honorary bearers were Raymond Beran, Leonard Cline, Marion Detweiler, Lawrence Pidima, Roger Steffen, Joel Steinmetz, Richard Vulsteke and George Williams. Interment was in Victor Memorial Cemetery, Victor.

Dick was born on Jan. 1, 1943, at Grinnell, the son of Richard and Dorothy Hofer Tuttle. He moved to Victor and graduated from Victor High School in 1962. On Jan. 10, 1964, he was married to Helen Loreta Phillips at Searsboro. The couple made their home in Victor and later they farmed north of Guernsey.

Dick was also employed at Amana Refrigeration Company. For 33 years he enjoyed farming and attending auctions and he loved being with his grandchildren. He also operated the movie projector at the Brooklyn Theatre for many years.

He was preceded in death by his father; one brother, Danny, who died in infancy; and an infant granddaughter, Jessica.

He is survived by his wife, Helen; three sons and their spouses, Rick and Sally Tuttle of Victor, Ron and Michele Tuttle of Las Vegas, Nev., and Mike and Denise Tuttle of Victor; seven grandchildren, Gage, Amanda, Kayla, Austin, Nick, Mikayla and Dillon; his mother, Dorothy Tuttle of Toledo; two brothers, Larry Tuttle of Belle Plaine and Don Tuttle of Victor; and his sister, Carol Williams of Deep River.

BC December 24, 1997