

(Arie)

Marilyn Van De Voort

Marilyn J. Van De Voort, 53, of rural Pella, formerly of the Sully area, died of cancer Friday, Nov. 26, at her home.

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday at the Third Reformed Church in Pella, with the Rev. Kevin E. Kover officiating. Burial was in Oakwood Cemetery, Pella, with the Van Dyk-Duven Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

The daughter of Deverne and Norma Roorda Renaud, she was born Oct. 4, 1940, south of Sully. She attended rural school and graduated from Sully High School in 1958.

She was married to Arie Van De Voort Jr., Oct. 27, 1959, at her parents' home south of Sully.

Mrs. Van De Voort worked at the Vernon Company in Newton and later for Hawkeye

Hybrids.

Surviving are her husband; four sons, Verlan, James, Daniel and David; six grandchildren; her mother, Norma Renaud of Grinnell; four brothers, Larry of Sully, Jerry of Grinnell, Isaac of Showlow, Ariz., and Randall of Grinnell; and two sisters, Carolyn Durr of Colo and Marlys Hagen of Anchorage, Alaska.

She was preceded in death by her father.

Memorials may be made to Hospice of Pella.

H-R December 2, 1993