

Rev. Daniel B. Hakken officiating. Burial was in Sully Cemetery.

He was the son of Menze (George) and Jenny Vander Hart Van Der Zyl and was born Dec. 11, 1910, near Sully. He attended Taylor School.

On Feb. 7, 1935, he was married to Frances Harthoorn.

Mr. Van Der Zyl was employed as a trucker for Sully Creamery until moving to a farm near Killduff in 1945. He returned to Sully in 1960 and was employed by Ver Ploeg Farm Supply until his retirement. Following his retirement he refinished furniture and worked occasionally as an auctioneer.

Surviving are his wife, Frances; two sons, Clarence of Sully and Roger of East Dubuque, Ill.; three daughters, Ileen Zegers of Sully, Lucile De Penning of Newton and Mildred Whetstone of Wellman; 13 grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; and five brothers, Simon of Pella, Walter of Newton, Floyd of Pella, Cornie of Pella and Marion of Bradenton, Fla.

Ralph Van Der Zyl

Ralph Van Der Zyl, 78, of Sully died Sunday, May 28, at St. Francis Manor in Grinnell.

Services were conducted Wednesday at the Sully First Reformed Church, with the

H-R June 5, 1989