Van Englenberg Services Friday

Will Van Englenberg, 69, died unexpectedly in the Joe Budding home south of Lynnville Tuesday.

Born March 23, 1898 in Veenendaal, Netherlands, Mr. Van Englenberg came to the United States in 1912.

He farmed southwest of Sully until his retirement two years ago.

He is survived by his sister, Mrs. Joe (Marie) Budding and another sister, Minnie Van Genderen of Lynnville.

Funeral services will be held Friday at 1:30 p.m. at the Pella Garden Chapel. The Rev. Harold Kamnerraad of the First Christian Reformed church of Sully will officiate.

Palibearers, all nephews of Mr. Van Englenberg, will be Joe Budding Jr., John Budding, Harris Van Genderen, Glen Van Genderen, John Van Englenberg, and John Wouda.

Burial will be in the Sully cemetery.
