

H-R June 14/1984

Henry VanWyk dies in Pella

Henry G. Van Wyk, 76, of Sully, died June 9 at Pella Community Hospital. Funeral services were held June 12 at the First Reformed Church in Sully with the Rev. Daniel Hakken, pastor of the church, and the Rev. Ralph Menning, officiating. Burial was in the Sully Cemetery.

Born Aug. 29, 1907, in Jasper County he was married to the former Clara Ver Steegt of Lynnville. They farmed 3½ miles south of Lynnville for 35 years before retiring and moving to Sully. He was county assistant assessor for Richland Township and the towns of Sully, Lynnville and Reasnor for 11 years and worked for the ASC office for 32 years.

Survivors are his wife Clara; three sons Gilbert and Gary L., both of Lynnville, and Orville of Grinnell; two daughters Mildred Bogaards of Pella and Mrs. Newton (Margaret Ann) Coop, West Liberty, Ky.; nine grandchildren and two great grandchildren; six sisters Mrs. John (Carrie) Braaksma, Newton, Mrs. Ben (Minnie) VerSteegt, Pella, Mrs. James (Gerturde) VerSteegt, Sully, Mrs. Henry (Mary-Grace) Terlouw, Grinnell, and Mrs. Max (Jeanette) Angle, Sully, and three brothers Guysbert (Bert) Van Wyk, Pella, David John Van Wyk, Sully, and Marion Van Wyk, Otley.