VandeKrol rites held

Funeral services for Leslie Vande Krol, 70, of Pella, a former rural Lynnville resident for 37 years, were held Monday at the Van Dyk-Duven Funeral Home in Pella.

Burial was at the Sully Cemetery. Memorials in Mr. Vande Krol's name may be made to the Christian Opportunity Center in Pella.

Mr. Vande Krol died Friday at his home. Dec. 1

The son of Henry and Mary Elscott Vande Krol, he was born Jan. 15, 1908, south of Lynnville. He attended Sully schools. On Dec. 24, 1929, he was married to Jeanette Vos in Sully.

He had moved to Pella in 1967 where he was employed at Ver Meer Manufacturing for two years and then at the Dutch Buffet and Recreation Center.

Survivors include his wife, Jeanette; a sister, Mrs. Neal (Mayme) Vander Wilt; and a brother, Harry Vande Krol. He was preceded in death by four sisters and two brothers.
