OBITUARY.

MRS. LUCY WHITE VERBECK.

A long life of usefulness and service was ended on Wednesday morning when Mrs. Lucy White Verbeck passed away at the home of her son, C. H. Verbeck, at 720 Spring street. Had Mrs. Verbeck survived until May 22, she would have passed the century mark. Her death was due to the gradual failing of the powers which accompanies old age, aggravated by a severe cold, ending in an attack of the grip.

The funeral was held this afternoon from the C. H. Verbeck residence, conducted by Rev. H. N. Dascomb. A large number of friends attended. A number were present from out of town, including Mrs. O. A. Verbeck, and her little grandson, Charles Quackenbush, 12 years old, from Aurora, Ill., Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Craver, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Inman and two children and Merrill and Grant Craver, all of Searsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Goodna, of New Sharon, and Mr. and Mrs. Luther Verbeck, of Malcom.
