Mrs. A. L. Vinstrand
Buried In Illinois,
Formerly Of Deep River

Funeral services were held last week in Galesburg, Ill., for a former Deep River native, Mrs. Alvin L. Vinstrand, 62, with burial in Oak Lawn Memorial Gardens. She died unexpectedly after a short illness.

The former Noami Irene McClain was born Sept. 30, 1902, at Deep River, where she attended high school. She graduated from Iowa State College in 1926, and later was a high school teacher at Frederika, Iowa, three years, prior to locating at Leroy, Minn., where she was a school principal for seven years. Mrs. Vinstrand had resided in Galesburg the past nine years.

She married Alvin L. Vinstrand, June 6, 1936, at Maquoketa, Iowa. Mr. Vinstrand is employed at Knox College, Galesburg.

Survivors are the husband and two brothers, Alton of Cedar Falls, and Wendell W. McClain of Deep River.
