

Jeanette Vogel

The Mass of Christian Burial was held Monday morning, May 19, in St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Brooklyn, for Mrs. Jeanette M. Vogel, 90, of rural Malcom, who died Friday, May 16, 1997, in St. Francis Manor, Grinnell.

The Rev. Joe Rogers officiated and the organist was Pat Shaw. Flower attendants were Robert and Janice Gritsch. Casketbearers were Jeff Vogel, Mike Vogel, Greg Jansen, Pat White, Jim White and David Vogel. Interment was in Calvary Cemetery, Brooklyn. A rosary service was held Sunday evening at the Nevenhoven Funeral Home, Brooklyn.

Jeanette M. Holoubek Vogel, daughter of Charles and Mary Wolman Holoubek, was born Nov. 11, 1906, at Davenport. When she was a young child her family moved to Iowa City where her father operated a grocery store. Jeanette received her education at St. Mary's School in Iowa City and was a graduate of the University of Iowa, where she continued her education after graduation. She then taught school at Solon, New Albin, and in the Red Oak area.

On Jan. 27, 1940, Jeanette married Frank A. Vogel in Iowa City. They farmed north of Malcom until their retirement. On Sept. 18, 1989, she became a resident of St. Francis Manor of Grinnell. Her husband died June 29, 1994.

Mrs. Vogel was a member of St. Patrick's Catholic Church and St. Patrick's Altar and Rosary Society of Brooklyn. She enjoyed gardening and her flowers, especially the roses.

Mrs. Vogel was preceded in death by her husband and two sisters.

Surviving are her two sons, Jim Vogel of Davenport and Larry Vogel and his wife, Rita, of Malcom; four grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.
