

Glenn Vogt Dies; Rites Tuesday ^{H-12} _{12/4/70}

Glenn B. Vogt, 55, of Rte. 4, Grinnell, died early Friday morning (Dec. 4) at University Hospitals in Iowa City following failing health the past three months.

The son of Christian John and Sara Marie Evans Vogt, Mr. Vogt was born east of Grinnell in Malcom Township on July 14, 1915. He attended the Grinnell schools and was a member of the high school class of 1933.

On May 12, 1936, he married Alma Maron in Rock Island, Ill. To this union two children — Mrs. Thomas (Connie) Morse of Flagstaff, Ariz., and Charles J. Vogt, a high school junior—were born.

Mr. Vogt farmed east of Grinnell until his health failed him recently. He was a member of the Grinnell United Methodist church and had served the church as a member of the building and finance committee and as an usher. Mr. Vogt was also a member of the BPO Elks Lodge, the Eagles Lodge and the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include his wife, Alma; his two children; and two grandchildren, Douglas and Glenn, both of Flagstaff, Ariz.

Mr. Vogt was preceded in death by his mother in 1924, his father in 1945, and his brother Paul E. Vogt on Dec. 1, 1968.

Funeral services for Mr. Vogt will be held at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday, Dec. 8, at the Grinnell United Methodist church with the Rev. J. Eugene Young, minister of the church, officiating.

Organist will be Mrs. Willard Heffner.

Pallbearers will be Keith Downey, Beecher Graham, Wayne Groppe, Walter Oltrogge, Ralph Rutherford and Robert Rutherford.

Burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home until 10 a.m. Tuesday and thereafter at the church.

Should friends desire, a memorial in Mr. Vogt's name may be made to the American Cancer Society in care of Mrs. Wayne Reams.
