Funeral Services Held Saturday For Mable Vogt

Mrs. Grover (Mable) Vogt, 70, of Rte. 1, Grinnell, died Thursday afternoon at a nursing home in Montezuma.

Mrs. Vogt had been in ill health the last six years and had been under special care for about six weeks.

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon from the Smith Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert Dewey, pastor of the Congregational church, officiating. Organ music was provided by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner.

Pallbearers were Paul Vogt, Glen Vogt, Harold Brown, Martin Pearce, Kenneth Vogt, and Willard Wells. Interment was in Hazelwood cemetery.

She was the daughter of Fred and Marv Kaler Westrip and was born at Council Bluffs on January 28, 1887. She attended the schools there and at Boone where the family later moved. A registered nurse, she had worked in Grinnell at the old city hospital.

On December 31, 1914, she was united in marriage with Grover Vogt at the Congregational church in Des Moines. Mr. and Mrs. Vogt lived in the Westfield area and had farmed the same farm for over 48 years.

They were the parents of four daughters, three of whom survive: Mrs. Farrell (Ruth) Siehl of Grinnell, Mrs. J. M. (Irene) Newton of Clinton, and Mrs. J. H. (Mauree) Barnes of Marion, Mass.

Also surviving besides her husband are nine grandchildren and one great grandchild; a brother, Fred Westrip of Tampa, Fla.; and a sister, Mrs. Paul Tucker of Clearwater, Fla.

Preceding her in death were her parents; a daughter, Mrs. Dorothy Vogt Arntzen; and a brother, Charles Westrip.

She was a member of the Grinnell Christian Science church and the Westfield Ladies Aid.
