

Life Story Of ^{BC}
James Waddle ⁷⁻⁷⁻¹⁹⁶³

James Waddle, son of Alexander and Elizabeth Young Waddle was born Feb. 9, 1885 in Marion county, Iowa, and died at the Collins hospital, Knoxville, July 9, at the age of 78 years 5 months.

He was united in marriage to Emma Templeton Dec. 5, 1906. To this union three children were born. An infant daughter preceded him in death. He is survived by his wife and son, Earl of Monroe, a daughter, Dorothy (Mrs. Millard Farmer) of Montezuma. A daughter-in-law and son-in-law, four grandchildren and seven great grandchildren.

He was the fifth child of a family of eight. One sister, Mrs. Grace Keller, Monroe, survives. Also surviving are several nieces, nephews, other relatives and many friends.

He had lived all of his married life but one year on his present homestead. He had been in failing health for several years but bore his illness patiently. At an early age he accepted Christ as his saviour. He has been an example of Christian manhood and loved his Lord dearly. He was a loving husband and father. A good neighbor and will be greatly missed in the home and community.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Friday, July 12, at the Bybee and Davis chapel in Knoxville. Thomas N. Love of Des Moines officiated. Burial at the Dunreath cemetery.
