

HR
Monday, August 24, 1961

Lawrence Wagamon, Lynnville Area Farmer, Succumbs

LYNNVILLE (SPECIAL) —
Lawrence E. Wagamon, a Lynnville area farmer for 25 years, died Saturday at an Oskaloosa hospital.

Wagamon, who would have been 53 on Monday, died from a heart attack after being a patient in the hospital two weeks.

Funeral services for Wagamon were conducted Monday at the Lynnville Friends Church. The Rev. Jerry Brown, pastor of the Taintor Methodist Church, officiated and was assisted by the Rev. Peter Schuyler, minister of the Lynnville Friends Church.

Burial was in the Sully Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Irene; two daughters, Mrs. Kenneth (Carolyn) Harada of Fredericksburg, Iowa; and Miss Roberta Wagamon of Dubuque; two grandchildren, Susan and John Haroda; his mother, Mrs. Lula Wagamon of Kinrose, Iowa; one brother, Doyle Wagamon of South English, Iowa; and a sister, Mrs. Laurence Nicola of Washington, Iowa.