

MARGARET M. WAGNER

Margaret M. Wagner, 77, of Cedar Rapids, died Thursday in Mercy Hospital following a sudden illness.

^{July 14}
Born Oct. 10, 1910, in Iowa County, she married William Wagner on May 10, 1930, at Oskaloosa. Mrs. Wagner worked in the coding department at Iowa National Mutual Insurance Co., retiring in 1956. She was a member of St. Jude Catholic Church, Linn County Heritage Society and Iowa County, Iowa, and Cambria County, Pa., historical societies and had written three books on genealogy.

Survivors include her husband, a daughter, Catherine Gengler of Tucson, Ariz.; and eight grandchildren.

Among relatives who preceded her in death was a brother, Ted VanDee of Deep River.

Memorial service was July 18, 1988, at St. Jude Catholic Church by the Rev. Mark Osterhaus. Inurnment: Armah Cemetery, North English.

BC July 20, 1988