Former Grinnell Woman Is Victim
of Accident Near Dexter;
Funeral Held Here Today

Funeral services for Mrs. Tony Wallace, who was killed Friday evening in an accident near Dexter, Iowa, were held this afternoon in the Methodist church with Rev. H. S. Wilkinson in charge. The fatal accident happened about 9:00 o'clock, one half mile east of Dexter, and it appeared as if Mrs. Wallace had been struck by a car. The car apparently went on without reporting the accident, and fragments of glass near the scene gave the only trace of the car that was found. Mrs. Wallace, who was on her way to Villisca to visit her daughter, Mrs. Will Pederson, was identified Saturday by members of the family.

Mary Jane Doud was born August 9, 1887, and was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Doud. She is survived by her husband, five children, Mrs. Lucille Pederson of Villisca; Mrs. Mabel Quinn of Chariton; and Wilburn, Everett and Russell, all of this city; her mother, Mrs. Peter Doud; five brothers, Will, Peter Jr., Dan, Mahlon and Clarence, all of this city; and two sisters, Mrs. Ida Lincoln, and Mrs. Beulah Beeler, also of this city.
