

James Ward Jr.<sup>A.R.</sup> Dies At Hospital 12/13/71

James H. Ward Jr., 68, of 614 Main St., died this morning (Monday) at Grinnell General Hospital.

The son of James H. Wade Sr. and Linda Lusk Wade, Mr. Wade was born Oct. 28, 1903, at Mt. Pleasant, Tenn.

Mr. Wade had lived in Mt. Pleasant, Tenn., for 25 years moving to Grinnell only three months ago. He had been employed as a mechanical engineer for the Carnegie Steel Corporation and was a member of the Masonic Lodge in Mt. Pleasant, Tenn.

Survivors include three children — Miss Phyllis L. Ward of Cedar Falls, James H. Ward III of Bryan, Texas, and Mrs. Larry R. (Margaret) Bryan of Grinnell, and three grandchildren.

Mr. Ward was preceded in death by his parents and his wife in August, 1970.

Funeral arrangements for Mr. Ward are incomplete. Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home for more information.

12/13/71
Burial in Tennessee
For James H. Ward

James Hilary Ward Jr., 68, of 814 Main St., died Monday at Grinnell General Hospital of an apparent heart condition. Following cremation, burial will be in Lawrence Cemetery, Mt. Pleasant, Tenn.

Mr. Ward had moved to Grinnell in October to be near his daughter, Mrs. Larry (Margaret) Bryan.

The son of James H. and Mary Linda Lusk Ward, he was born Oct. 29, 1903, at Mt. Pleasant, Tenn. He was a graduate of the University of Tennessee and received his bachelor's degree in engineering. For a number of years he lived in Chicago, where he was employed by the Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corporation. He returned to Mt. Pleasant in 1945.

Mr. Ward was married to Edwina Shaw Dec. 27, 1933, at New Orleans, La. The couple had three children. He was a member of the Presbyterian church in Mt. Pleasant, the Mt. Pleasant Masonic Lodge, and the Maury County Historical Association.

He is survived by his three children, Mrs. Bryan, Phyllis Linn Ward of Cedar Falls, and James H. Ward III of Bryan, Tex.; three grandchildren; and a brother, Dr. Leon Scott Ward of Columbia, Tenn. He was preceded in death by his wife and parents.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.