Frank Weaver rites Saturday

Frank D. Weaver, 77, of Lyons, Colo., died Monday afternoon at his home.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Newburg United Church of Christ, with the Revs. Peter and Allyson Sawtell, co-pastors of the Newburg-Chester parish, officiating. Organist will be Alice Renaud, and vocalists will be Ruth Ann Dayton and Wilma Schmitz.

Pallbearers will be Rex Kirby, Max Stanley, Virgil Stanley, Derald Weaver, Don Weaver, Doyle Weaver, Elmer Weaver, Fred L. Weaver and LaVerne Weaver. Burial will be at Prairie View Cemetery, Gilman, with the Smith Funeral Home in charge of arrangements. Friends may call at the funeral home beginning at 3 p.m. Friday.

The son of Fred and Anna McClain Weaver, he was born March 18, 1904, near Sully. He attended rural school near the family farm and graduated from Gilman High School in 1922. He attended the University of Iowa and received his B.A. degree in 1926.

From 1926 to 1941, he taught science and mathematics in high schools in Lucerne, Mo., and Otho and West Branch, Iowa. He received his M.A. degree from the University of Wyoming in 1940. In 1941, he joined the staff of the National Bureau of Standards in Washington, D.C. He was transferred to the bureau's Radio Standards Division at Boulder, Colo., in 1957, where he supervised the establishment of a low-frequency calibration facility.

At the time of his retirement, he was a supervisory electrical engineer and chief of the Low-Frequency Calibration Services Section of the division at Boulder. He retired in December 1965 and made his home on a acreage near Lyons, Colo.

Survivors include his sister, Hazel Stanley of rural Grinnell, and his two brothers, Fred Weaver of rural Grinnell and John Weaver of State Center. He was preceded in death by his parents.
