Mary Lou Webb, 39, the wife of James E. Webb of 1628 Fifth Ave., died Thursday, Aug. 15, at Grinnell General Hospital. She had been in failing health the past few months.

The daughter of Perry J. and Agnes Stanley Evers, she was born Nov. 24, 1934, near Montezuma. Her family moved to Grinnell, and she attended the Grinnell schools, graduating from Grinnell High School in 1953.

On June 10, 1956, she was married to James E. Webb in Grinnell. The couple had one son, Gregory Scott Webb, now 16.

Mrs. Webb was a member of the United Methodist Church and the United Methodist Women. She had been active in Christian education, having taught for a number of years in the church Sunday school. For the past nine years, she had been an assistant optometric technician in the office of Dr. Duane L. Town, and she was a member of the Iowa Optometric Assistants Association.

Survivors include her husband, her son, her parents, and a brother and sister, Jack Byers and Mrs. James (Kathryn) Sage, both of Grinnell.

Funeral services for Mrs Webb were held at 1:30 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Hugh A. Shiveley, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Grinnell, officiating. Organist was Mrs. Willard Heffner, and pallbearers were Jim George, LeRoy Greenfield, Maynard Long, Harold Miller, Robert Niemann and David Wilkens.

Burial was in Hazelwood Cemetery. Should friends desire, memorials may be made to Grinnell General Hospital.
